

Vedasahasrapaat Introduction

Brochure

1. What is Vedasahasrapaat Meditation?

It is subtle yet strong meditation technique initiated to aspirants by Gurumithra Dr. Harish tenneti. This is initiated into aspirant by using Dhvani and Soungandhika initiation methods as guided by Keshara Mithra VSP Tenneti.

2. Who can attend the course?

Out of many courses Theosophia Shyamanthaka Mission teaches, Vedasahasrapaat is considerably basic course. Anyone who is interested in learning basic meditation with utmost respect and love can join this course.

Youngsters, students, spiritual sadhaks, employers, employee, and political aspirants however, children below 12 years are not encouraged to join.

3. How is Vedasahasrapaat useful to us?

Many of us suffer from different problems. It is almost impossible to find one who has no problems.

Vedasahasrapaat magnifies the vital energies, stamina, withstanding power, shock absorbing capabilities, analytical thinking and empowers the sadhaks with self-confidence.

4. How many days will it take to become a perfect Vedasahasrapaat sadhaks?

Though the practice is simply for 21 days, hardly one hour each day. The student becomes well vibrated energy channel within 48 hours after the dry and wet initiations. Vedasahasrapaat does not attempt to convert you into a healer or a guru. Vedasahasrapaat meditation is aiming at creating a transformation. All the regular Vedasahasrapaat sadhaks have spine chilling experiences and 360degree transformation in life.

5. Are there any restrictions after learning Vedasahasrapaat meditation?

There are no restrictions imposed upon sadhaks. The transformation naturally and gradually takes place. Nevertheless, systematic disciplinary living at least for a 21-day period is advised for faster and deep results.

6. What miracles can Vedasahasrapaat promise?

Miracles cannot be promised, do not do Vedasahasrapaat for miracles.

Vedasahasrapaat is a spiritual practice,

the more Sadhana you do, more miracles you cherish.
